

MGT 241 - PRINCIPLES OF MANAGEMENT

Course Description

This applications-oriented course will teach students the basics of day-to-day managerial work-planning, organization, leading, and controlling. Realistic scenarios are explored in areas of leadership, communication, planning, conflict, strategy, problem solving, and working in teams. Group 2 course.

Credit Hours

3

Contact Hours

3

Lecture Hours

3

Recommended Prerequisites or Skills Competencies

BUS 101, ENG 111 minimum placement

General Education Outcomes supported by this course

Communications - Direct, Critical Thinking - Direct

Other college designations supported by this course

Infused: Writing Intensive

Course Learning Outcomes

Knowledge:

- Identify basic management vocabulary focused on the Planning Organizing Leading Controlling framework.

Application:

- Assess the effectiveness of managerial models in solving current management issues and challenges.

Integration:

- Integrate interpersonal communication skills while interviewing a business manager.

Human Dimension:

- Will recognize their own and others' leadership styles and the impact of these styles on effective work relationships.

Caring - Civic Learning:

- Communicate models of ethical decision making with successful management practice.

Learning How to Learn:

- Reflect on management concepts extracted from the business manager interviews.