

MNS 200 - NAVAL SCIENCE II

---

Course Description

This course is required of all Maritime Academy cadets who are Midshipmen in the Merchant Marine Reserve/U.S. Naval Reserve program. It familiarizes the student with naval missions and heritage as well as to assist the Merchant Marine officer make the transition from civilian to sailor. Group 2 course.

Credit Hours

2

Contact Hours

2

Lecture Hours

2

Required Prerequisites

MNS 100

Course Learning Outcomes

Knowledge:

- Describe U.S. Naval customs and courtesies, rank structure, and insignia.
- Describe the missions and functions of US Navy warfare communities including their roles in maritime strategy.

Application:

- Define the role of commissioned officers as members of the US Armed Forces.

Integration:

- Synthesize course materials making connections and uncovering patterns.

Human Dimension:

- See themselves as civilian mariners who hold an obligation to the U.S. in time of need.

Caring - Civic Learning:

- Conceptualize the significance of changing roles from civilians to sailor to civilians.

Learning How to Learn:

- Develop learning plans based on current events.