

ART 111 - HISTORY OF WESTERN ART I

Course Description

The course will introduce major trends of Western Art from Pre-History through Greece, Rome and the Middle Ages. Significant works of painting, sculpture and architecture will be presented within the social, political and cultural context of each period. Group 1 course.

Credit Hours

4

Contact Hours

4

Lecture Hours

4

Recommended Prerequisites or Skills

Competencies

ENG 111

General Education Outcomes supported by this course

Critical Thinking - Direct

Other college designations supported by this course

Degree Req:Cultural Persp/Div

Course Learning Outcomes

Knowledge:

- Describe historical periods and events that influenced culture and art.
- Describe the critical thinking patterns of art scholars.
- Describe how geographic location influences art.
- Identify art historical data when shown images.

Application:

- Compare stylistic characteristics from different civilizations, historical periods and media.
- Make informed judgments about artwork.

Integration:

- Uncover patterns, similarities and influences in art periods.

Human Dimension:

- form opinions and articulate them to others.

Caring - Civic Learning:

- Express an appreciation for the history of western art.

Learning How to Learn:

- Interact constructively when articulating viewpoints to others.