

AVG 240 - CORPORATE AVIATION GROUND

Course Description

Students taking this course will learn about the aspects of business aviation. Aircraft types, regulations, business customs, and future outlooks of corporate aviation will be presented. Group 2 course.

Credit Hours

3

Contact Hours

3

Lecture Hours

3

Recommended Prerequisites or Skills Competencies

AVG 202

Course Learning Outcomes

Knowledge:

- Explain aspects of corporate aviation including aircraft, regulations, business customs, and future outlooks of corporate aviation.
- Explain the rules and regulations that govern private and corporate flight operations.
- Describe the workings of the engine and its components of common business aviation aircraft.
- Conduct business operation according to the norms in corporate aviation.
- Articulate the customs protocol process for entering foreign countries and returning to the United States.

Application:

- Identify what makes a corporate aviation department successful.

Integration:

- Describe the effect FAA regulations have on current and future corporate aviation markets and businesses.

Human Dimension:

- Communicate with diverse communities by gaining knowledge of universal terms and best practices.

Caring - Civic Learning:

- Understand how regulations, systems, border customs and business outlooks effect both business and customer in their decision processes.
- Describe how General Aviation can help support a broad spectrum of industries and markets.

Learning How to Learn:

- Conceptualize how their skills transfer to various career tracks.
- Realize future employers make operational decisions based on company needs.