

AVG 381 - INSTRUCTOR GROUND SCHOOL

Course Description

A course of study that will provide basic education principles and a review of the aeronautical knowledge required for the flight instructor (airplane single engine) certificate and prepare the student to take the FAA Fundamentals of Instruction (FOI) and the Flight Instructor-Airplane Single Engine written examinations. Through classroom presentations and one-on-one student teaching, students will gain practical teaching experience. Group 2 course.

Credit Hours

5

Contact Hours

5

Lecture Hours

5

Required Prerequisites

AVF 230 and AVG 251, both with a 2.0 or higher.

Course Learning Outcomes

Knowledge:

- Describe key concepts of teaching fundamentals on aviation subject matter.

Application:

- Construct lessons that teach key concepts to others.

Integration:

- Communicate key elements of aviation concepts to solve real world situations.

Human Dimension:

- Illustrate their ability to teach effectively.

Caring - Civic Learning:

- Inspire to motivate and connect with students as instructors.

Learning How to Learn:

- Recognize the importance of self-learning in the aviation industry.