CIT 216 - COMPUTERIZED ACCTG SYSTEMS

Course Description

QuickBooks Online provides essential coverage of the new QuickBooks Online program. Topics covered include navigating QuickBooks Online features, creating company files, setting up customers and vendors, managing banking transactions and inventory, creating journal entries, generating and customizing reports and sales forms, and more. Group 2 course.

Credit Hours

3

Contact Hours

3

Lecture Hours

3

Required Prerequisites

ACC 121

Course Learning Outcomes

Knowledge:
- Identify basic accounting information found in real life situations.

Application:
- Use accounting concepts and skills found in real life situations.

Integration:
- Evaluate various real life scenarios using accounting knowledge, concepts, and skills.

Human Dimension:
- Identify patterns in their own developing accounting knowledge.

Caring - Civic Learning:
- Engage in ethical decision making regarding accounting.

Learning How to Learn:
- Reflect on their own developing accounting knowledge regarding future career options.